NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

The latest story in relation to Dr. Cronin of Chicago is that he was seen in Sherwood, N. Y., on Monday last. Sherwood is a little cross-roads in Cayuga county. It was probably a case of mistaken identity.

The Wilkesbarre Board of trade is so indignant over the refusal of the Italian government to surrender the murderers of McClure who escaped to that country, that they insist upon the exclusion of Italian emigrants from the United States. The demand is a just one, if Italy proposes to protect those of her subjects who come here and commit murder.

It is quite possible that a murder was committed in the case of Washington Irving Bishop. Four hours after his death, and before the arrival of his wife to view the remains, his body was cut into by two physicians for the purpose of an autopsy. Now his friends testify that he was subject to trances which resembled death. There will be a prosecution and possibly a couple of state prison convicts.

The Brewers of Philadelphia who have been refused a license proposal to keep their breweries running and appeal to the courts. They insist that they cannot be repressed by the state law. It is likely that they are making a mistake. The brewers will never own the United States until David B. Hill becomes President. Until then all those who are outside of the state of New York will be compelled to obey the law.

The success of the Democrats in the Montana constitutional convention election may result unfortunately, as the majority of the voters are Republicans. Should the convention undertake any rank partisan work in preparing the constitution, it will be rejected by the people and admission delayed. A non-partisan constitution, and especially one that throws the most sacred safeguards around the suffrage, is the only one that can be accepted by the people or approved by Congress.

GEN. CLINTON B. FISK, the Prohibition candidate for President last year, has written another letter concerning the performances of the New Jersey Legislature. He declares that he is "willing to enter into any combination with good men of New Jersey for the utter overthrow of the whisky oligarchy lately sitting in Trenton and calling the Legislature." Gen. Fisk appears waiting right before the door of the Republican camp, ready to accept an invitation to come in.

ST. SAUVIER is separated from the Quebec municipality only by a street, but when the place was burning up yesterday the Quebec fire department could render no assistance for want of water. Several times Quebec had offered to extend its water mains into the town, and the fire was repeated the night before the fire broke out. Extreme parsimony in this instance has cost $600,000, rendered 1,200 families homeless, and destroyed two valuable lives.

MR. FISH told Mr. Ainsworth on the floor of the Assembly yesterday that he had no conscience, and he didn't believe he had an honest hair in his head. This readiness of Mr. Fish to speak under the impulse of anger probably accounts for some of his legislative misfortunes, and especially for the rejection of his report on the ceiling scandal. Mr. Fish is generally on the right side of all important questions, but this does not justify him in blackguarding other members. Nevertheless we hope Mr. Fish will come back to the Assembly. Mr. Ainsworth's return is not a matter for deep solicitude.

JOHN SNAITH returned to Albany last night from his retreat in Philadelphia. He proposes to take steps for the recovery of $40,000 yet due on the ceiling contract. The adoption of the Fish committee report would have deprived him of this and also have subjected him to prosecution and punishment. He is well pleased with the substitution of the Ainsworth report, which whitewashed him of everything but the soils upon his reputation. Hereafter the people of the state of New York will look upon Smith as one of the luckiest of the big thieves of the Capitol.

ALLEN THORNDIKE RICE, who died yesterday almost at the very hour that he was to sail to Russia to become the American minister to that country, was only 36 years old. He was born in Boston, and descended from ancestors who came over with Gov. Winthrop. He was educated at Oxford, England, and was afterwards a student at the Columbia law school. He inherited three large fortunes, and his wealth is estimated at $1,000,000. But he developed great industry and devotion to literature, and his management of the North American Review, a sinking concern when he bought it, made it successful and a source of considerable revenue. He was a thorough American in his tastes and associations, and labored to evolve the best results from our political system. His appointment to Russia will stand among the most popular of the initial acts of President Harrison's administration.

EX-SPECIAL EXAMINER KEAM or KEARN has furnished the pitiful story of his removal from office to the New York Sun, and every truly pitying heart must sympathize with him in his deplorable situation. And yet we are not surprised that Commissioner Tanner had no need for his services. His policy is so radically different from that of Gen. Black, that any man who endorses the latter cannot be useful to the new administration. Among the services that Corporal Tanner proposes to dispense with are those of that class of special examiners who acted as spies to pry into and report every derogatory fact or rumor that could be heard against an applicant for pensions. A very large business in blackmail was carried on by these "specials." We do not claim to know anything about Mr. Kearn's or Kearn's record. His dismissal is not a personal matter, but is aimed at a breed of officials for which there is at present no use. He has met the fate that sooner or later befalls every one who tries to live by politics, and it is not mainly to grieve. The sympathy that he invokes will not be responded to by those who regard the chronic dependent upon the government in the same light as any other public pauper.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. Business Transacted During To-Day's Session. Reports of Committees Made, Etc.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Moderator Roberts called the second day's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly to order shortly after 9 o'clock this forenoon. The old rules for the government of the Assembly were adopted. J. T. Duffield, D. D., of New Brunswick, extended an invitation to the Assembly from Princeton College to visit that place a week from Saturday. The invitation was accepted. The Moderator then announced the Standing Committees for the session. Upon the invitation of the Union Theological Seminary the Assembly will visit that institution immediately upon adjournment Monday. The report of the Committee on Extinct Churches was then read. In the opinion of the Committee a "Church Property Committee" should be appointed, to whom all cases of defunct churches should be referred. The report was adopted. The Rev. Dr. Morris, Chairman of the Educational Committee, read the report of that Committee. The report showed that at present there were more than 300 churches, with a membership of from one to 25 members, without pastors because of lack of funds. This lack of ministerial help, the report said, was a serious question and one that should be squarely met. The rate of dissolution was last year 36 per cent., the largest in the history of the Presbyterian Church. The cause of this dissolution, though perhaps due to the migratory habits of the people, is principally to be attributed to the need of money. The Chairman said that work among the colored population needed attention which it would be wise to give it. The constant diminution of the ministerial force by reason of old age and disease also required attention. In conclusion he said the Church must have paid and ordained ministers to meet this growing demand for ministerial aid, it was vital to church interests and required prompt and vigorous action.

FATHER DONOVAN ON THE STAND.

Testifying for the Defense Before the Parrell Commission.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, May 17.—Father Donovan testified for the defense before the Parrell Commission to-day. He said the Moonlighters at Tulla were opposed to the League and they had threatened witness, who was under police protection, while he was connected with the branch of the League. Father Donovan attributed the increase of crime during the League's existence to the action of the land-owners in enforcing evictions. Witness had denounced crime from the altar of his church on 40 Sundays.

Their Ideas Too High.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—Designing Engineer Horace See, who is connected with the system of mental training in the public schools. He alluded to it as "a scheme launched upon the ocean of experiment for the education of the young," and added: "It is not only perplexing to conceive how a trade can be taught in the manner specified, but how a boy, staggering under his load of science, technology, industrial art or commercial activity can be brought down to such a humble pursuit and made to work at it. The fact is, he cannot be brought there, but aspires to something higher. His efforts in this direction, as a rule, are unsuccessful, and cause him to drop out of mechanical pursuits."

The address was severely criticized by a number of members of the Association as inappropriate to the time and place, and not a just treatment of the subject.

To Be Killed by Electricity.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

BUFFALO, May 17.—The death warrant of William Kemmler, the first man convicted under the electrical execution law, has been signed, and he will be taken to Auburn State Prison to await the execution. The warrant is directed to the Warden of Auburn Prison, and provides that the sentence be executed "upon some day in the week commencing Monday, the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord 1889, and within the walls of Auburn State Prison, or within the yard enclosure adjoining."

The President's Callers To-Day.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Among the callers on the President to-day were Senator Evans, ex-Senator Conger, Representatives Chedle and Posey of Indiana, and friends, D. B. Henderson, of Iowa; Representative J. D. Taylor, of Ohio; Representative Butler, ex-Representative Yost, Rear Admirals Rogers and Franklin; Minister Carter, of Hawaii, with Justice Dickerson, of the Hawaiian Supreme Court, and G. W. Smith, of Honolulu.

Killing Camden's Bottle Trade.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—The Camden Excise Board passed, last night, a general ordinance providing that wholesale liquor dealers shall not sell in quantities of less than a quart, and no liquor can be drunk upon the premises. Retailers must sell in quantities less than a quart, and the liquor must be drunk on the premises. The result will be that a half-pint or pint bottle cannot be legally sold to be carried away.

Nelson Colbert Hanged.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Nelson Colbert, colored, was hanged at 12:54 p. m. for the murder of Philip Wentzell in October last. Wentzell was Superintendent of the Columbia-street car stables, where Colbert was employed. Colbert got drunk and was discharged by Wentzell. He demanded the amount due him for the spot, and not getting it, shot and killed the Superintendent.

Strikers Killed by Military.

By Cable to The Freeman.

BREXIN, May 17.—A conflict has occurred between the military and the strikers near Brexlin. The troops fired upon the strikers, killing a number of them.

WORK OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The number of bills introduced in the Legislature at its last session was 1,979, of which 1,250 were presented in the Assembly and 729 in the Senate. Two hundred and eighty-eight of these have become laws, and 384 are in the Governor's hands. Hence about two-thirds of the bills failed of passage. The most important measures of the session were the ballot reform bill, the high license bill, the Vedder liquor tax bill, the prison reform bill and the compulsory education bill. The Governor has vetoed the first on the list and will probably kill the second and third with a pocket veto. The Fasset prison reform bill has already been explained in these columns. The Governor is expected to approve it. The education bill requires all children between the ages of seven and eleven years to attend school during all the time the schools are in session, and children between eleven and fourteen years to attend at least fourteen weeks in each year. Teachers of other than the state schools must receive authority from the officers in charge of the public schools. The Democratic members opposed this bill, and it is possible that the Governor will allow it to die. Legislation in regard to the treatment of the insane was disposed of by the defeat of the bill providing for state instead of county supervision, and the passage of a bill to create a triple instead of a single commission on lunacy, to consist of a physician, a lawyer and a business man. The bill has been signed and the commission appointed.

Early in the session Mr. Haggerty introduced a constitutional amendment to provide for the election of two additional Supreme Court Judges in the second district, which includes Long Island and the counties of the lower Hudson. Yesterday this amendment was changed to provide for the election of two additional Judges in the first and second districts, and one in each of the other districts, from the third to the eighth inclusive. The creation of a second Court of Appeals, by which seven Judges were taken from the Supreme bench, made this action necessary. It must be passed upon by another Legislature before it can go to the people.

The annual tax rate is fixed at 3.32 mills, against 2.62 last year. This is a large increase, and on the basis of last year's valuation would raise the tax from $9,089,303.86 to $12,211,583.81. Ulster county's tax on the same valuation would be increased from $66,619.97 to $89,545. The increase is due to a variety of causes. Idleness at the prisons has caused a big deficiency; the appropriations for armories have been liberal; six new Normal Schools have been provided for; the Washington centennial took a large sum; it will require $100,000 to carry the compulsory education law into effect; the prison reform bill will require $500,000 for the same purpose; canal expenditures foot up about $1,500,000, and about $400,000 goes to repairs and improvements upon the new Capitol. While none of these expenditures can be called dishonest, the Legislature is not likely to be charged with parsimony, especially in dealing with Normal School and armory schemes. The taxpayers, who have been looking for some relief to their pockets through the new devices for raising revenue, such as the corporation, collateral inheritance, pool and other special taxes, will wonder why state expenses always keep ahead of the gains. These special taxes brought into the Treasury last year the important sum of $1,772,578.94. We find no occasion to revise the opinion already expressed that a good many of the retiring members of both houses and both parties will receive invitations at the next election to remain at home. Not since 1875 have the state taxes been so large.

AN EXTRAORDINARY PERFORMANCE.

Chief Justice Fuller's daughter Pauline, familiarly known and greatly beloved in the family as No. 4, caused a national sensation of the milder sort last winter by eloping to Milwaukee while on a visit to Chicago, and marrying a young man named Aubrey through the kind offices of a Justice of the Peace. The matter was nearly forgotten when, a few days ago, the young bride had the misfortune to be swindled by a confidence operator. The fellow called upon her at the house of her father-in-law in Chicago, and introduced himself as an appraiser of customs. He informed her that there was at the custom house a box of vases consigned to her from Paris, and that, because of his friendship for her father who had assisted him in obtaining a position, he would give her a receipt in full on the payment to him of $14.98, which was just one half the actual charge of duty on the importation. Mrs. Aubrey informed him that she had only $5 in her purse, whereupon he told her he would accept that sum, give her a receipt in full, and instruct the delivery clerk to collect the remaining $9.98 when the goods were placed in her possession. The vases were to be sent to her the next morning. As several mornings passed without their appearance, the Aubrey household became suspicious of a confidence game, and a call was made at the custom house. There it was learned that no vases had come from Paris, and also that the friend of the Chief Justice was not employed there. Mrs. Aubrey was out $5, though the experience may be worth that amount to her. The astonishing part of the disclosure is her readiness to save $14.98 by defrauding the government, a better "friend of her father" than any petty official could be, of half its honest dues. The circumstance can only be explained on the theory that among the Chief Justice's numerous daughters there might probably have been one who failed to "catch on" to his instructions in the principles of common honesty.

REVOLUTIONARY TALK.

The Graphic has news from Washington that the Democrats in Congress have not yet given up the idea of controlling the House. They admit that they are in the minority, but appear to place a great deal of reliance upon the autocratic will of the Clerk of the old House who holds over till his successor is elected, Gen. John B. Clark of Missouri. Gen. Clark has said that he will put upon the House the members who hold certificates of election, and of these, he admits, a majority are Republicans. He cannot make any thing for his party by omitting the names of those whose seats are contested, for every member against whom notice of contest has been filed is a Democrat. The only contest proposed by a Democrat against a Republican was in the fourth district of Connecticut, and this has been withdrawn. Fifteen Republicans will dispute the right of Democrats to the certificates they hold, and with one exception these are from the South. But with a Democrat in every seat, and the vacant places of the two dead Democrats filled, the Republicans will still have a majority of three on Gen. Clark's roll.

The rules of the House, prepared by Democratic majorities, give great latitude to filibustering schemes, and may be employed to delay legislation. But to undertake to prevent the organization of the House, as is threatened, would be to come dangerously near to the border land of revolution. This is a republic, and the foundation principle of the government is the will of the majority. To thwart that will, in the well understood view of President Harrison, revolution, and he would feel justified in using all the powers vested in him as the executive head of the civil authority and the commander-in-chief of the army, to maintain the constitutional right of the majority. This truth is likely to penetrate the brains of the braggers in time to save them from the consequences of their threats.

When Gen. Grant was President the Democrats did not talk of revolutionary proceedings. Mr. Tilden told his friends in 1877, when he was approached on the subject of taking the oath of office and proclaiming himself President, that the scheme would fail because a great soldier was in the Presidency. General Harrison may not have been as great a military leader as Grant, but he has Grant's courage, firmness, patriotism, and enough military experience to deal with revolutionists. If those who make their threats do not know this now they will know it hereafter. The Fifty-first Congress will be organized peacefully, lawfully, and the minority will take its proper place. There is not the slightest danger of any interruption or disturbance of this program.

PUBLIC OPINION.

Democratic contemporaries are bewailing the large amount paid out by the government annually as pensions. Had it not been for the Southern Democracy there would have been neither a big debt nor a big pension outlay.—Troy Times.

An exchange remarks that "almost everything is made out of coal oil nowadays." It does seem so. Down in Ohio they made a United States Senator out of it and are going to try it again. It is great grease, coal oil is.—Detroit Tribune.

If Cleveland would come out as a candidate he could doubtless be elected Chairman of the National Democratic Committee. Being one of the large contributors to the campaign fund last year, he is entitled to the honor.—Chicago Lake-Ocean.

"Send me," wrote the Mississippi hard-wear merchant, "one 'Argument Against Negro Suffrage,' 16mo., with 100 tracts on the same subject." And the jobber filled the order by sending him a Winchester rifle and 100 rounds of ammunition.—Chicago Tribune.

The first sentence under the Electric-execution law was pronounced in Buffalo Tuesday and it is to be made the subject of an appeal against the constitutionality of the act. Kemmer may swing yet. The law bears every surface mark of unconstitutionality.—Buffalo Express.

It is said that the atmosphere between the Governor and the Lieutenant Governor has been at freezing point since Hill was burned in effigy at Binghamton. This is hardly fair. If Jones pays the freight he cannot be expected to run the fire department, too.—Berkshire Democrat and Chronicle.

Ballot reform will be achieved. It may be accomplished next winter by the election next fall of a two-thirds Republican majority to each house of the Legislature. Failing that it must wait till a tired and indignant people retires this creature of the slums and gamblers and bribers from the chair he degrades.—Union Herald.

Now that the Legislature has adjourned, Governor Hill will be an object of no little interest for the thirty days which he has for the consideration of bills left in his hands. There are 384 such bills altogether, some of them being of great importance. Careful examination of all the measures awaiting his attention will allow Mr. Hill little leisure for the next month.—New York Tribune.

Allen Thorndike Rice, whose sudden death has filled his friends with sorrow, was a gentleman, a true scholar, a man of the gentlest and most refined of tempers, full of energy and honor, a most competent manager and editor of an important Review, a genuine friend, and a faithful and manly antagonist. The facts of his too brief history are reported elsewhere, but we cannot but regret the loss of such a man. In his possession of hereditary wealth neither stilled talent nor checked labor. Always industrious, always inventive, he was far abler and more reliable than his daily associates were apt to imagine, much as they esteemed him, and his death at the opening of a broader career is indeed deplorable.—New York Sun.

Without nauseating those who take them, the little, sugar-coated granules, known all over the land as "Pain-Expeller," cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. ## CITY AND SUBURBAN NEWS

AND BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVER-HEARD HERE TO-DAY.

The Fourteenth Separate Company Goes Sailing—What a Physician Has Said—Too Much Water Thrown on Sidewalks—Where Many Men Are Employed.

Last evening members of the Fourteenth Separate Company, in full dress uniform, assembled at their Armory on Union-avenue, and from there, headed by the Pythian Band, marched to the residence of Robert Tomkins, on Grove-street, Ponckhockie, and tendered that gentleman and his wife a serenade. After the band had played several airs, Captain J. Van Etten, on behalf of the Company, presented Mr. Tomkins with a handsome silver water set, consisting of pitcher, cup and tray. Mr. Tomkins, who is the First Lieutenant of the organization, thanked his comrades in arms for their mark of esteem, and invited them to the house, where refreshments were served. On their way to the Tomkins residence the company attracted attention. The Strand was filled with people, who admired the men's soldierly appearance and fine marching.

Cases of scarlet fever are reported in several localities here. In referring to fumigation in cases of infectious disease, a physician has said: "Fumigation by the burning of sulphur is the most common method employed by Boards of Health in the disinfection of apartments in which contagious disease has existed." In an address delivered recently, by Dr. E. H. Squibb, attention was called to the fact that there must always be an abundance of watery vapor in the room to be disinfected, otherwise the sulphurous acid gas generated by the burning of the sulphur is not an efficient disinfectant. The same is true of chlorine gas when used for disinfecting purposes.

A motherless little girl from a neighboring city recently visited relatives here. One of the child took her one day to call on a little girl of about her own age, whose father had recently "presented her with a step-mother." The aunt of little girl No. 1 spoke of the sudden death of her sister, and remarked in the hearing of the children that it was "so very sad" for her little niece to be left without a mother. The little one referred to burst into tears, but her baby companion comforted her by saying: "O, never mind, Nellie! Your papa will soon get you another mamma like mine did."

A long-suffering citizen in a near by Hudson River City, has been told by a neighbor: "Just keep on soaking your store front and sidewalk every morning at just the time people are compelled to pass your store on their way to work, soiling their garments and wetting their feet, and they will mark you down, and on pay night, remember you, by stepping in your neighbor's store to do their shopping." The item has a local bearing.

An Irishman went into a saloon here, this morning, and said to the man behind the bar: "What kind of beer have ye on tap?" "Rochester lager," replied the bar-tender as he reached for a schooner glass. "Just keep on soaking your store front and sidewalk every morning at just the time people are compelled to pass your store on their way to work, soiling their garments and wetting their feet, and they will mark you down, and on pay night, remember you, by stepping in your neighbor's store to do their shopping." The item has a local bearing.

The special articles in THE FREEMAN of Saturday evening will include a breezy New-York City letter from "Ouis"; Catskill Mountain trout streams and how to angle described; Secretary Crowell's impressions of the Young Men's Christian Association Convention held recently at Philadelphia; a temperance story, contributed by the Rondout Women's Christian Temperance Union, etc.

It is pointed out that it is probably a fact that most men who learn to dictate to a stenographer are tempted to be desultory. Some of them this habit of rambling from one subject to another in a desultory manner is a positive advantage to a man, but oftener it betrays him into a lack of verbiage than which nothing is more undesirable in business correspondence or literature.

There is a large number of men employed in the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company. Some are engaged in wheeling. Others, called "loafers," get into the hold of a vessel and shovel coal into iron tubs. Then there are trimmers and men who tend guy ropes. Others look after the hoisting levers. A small army of boys earn good wages picking slate.

OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR INTERESTS.

The Monument to Commemorate Soldiers and Sailors of Ulster County, Etc.

Last evening about 80 persons, members of the Committee on Designs, General Committee, and Commissioners appointed to select a monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of Ulster County, met in the Court House here. Another design, besides those mentioned in THE FREEMAN of Thursday, was exhibited. It was that of Booth Brothers and the Hurricane Isle Granite Company, of New York City. It was not presented until the evening. It shows a monument 21 feet high; diameter at the base 12 feet. On the second base is a representation of the Grand Army badge in bronze, also a place for inscription of battles. The monument is circular in form, castellated and the whole surmounted by a figure of a soldier. A few minutes before 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Colonel Tremper. Major Edward O'Reilly was appointed Secretary, until John E. Kraft, the regular Secretary, would be present later in the evening. The agents representing the different companies were invited to come before the Committee and each gave a detailed description of the designs of his company. The agent of the Granite State Monument Company gave the value of his monuments at $7,500 each; of the Smith Granite Company at about $8,000; Michael J. Powers $8,000. A. C. Vredenberg about the same; Frederick & Field, No. 1, $8,500, No. 2, $10,000 and No. 3, $9,200. No. 3 to be reduced in size to cost about $9,500; Booth Brothers' monument, $8,000. There was 10 o'clock when the agents had finished giving information. R. Bernard suggested that the designs be numbered and an informal ballot be taken. Dr. George C. Smith said that the first thing to do was to rule out those monuments the price of which exceeded the amount of money in the hands of the Committee. Judge Parker made a motion that the whole matter be referred back to the Committee on Designs to select a monument and make a contract. B. G. Walker arose to a point of order that those present had been selected to decide upon a monument and it could not be referred. The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken. Dr. Loughran said that after an examination of the design he was unable to vote on the question at present. Some of the monuments could not be accepted because of the price. Changes are proposed in others. "Who will dictate those changes? It will be better to select a Committee of five and give them full power." Judge Parker said he made his motion because he was not prepared to decide. He did not see how it would be possible to make a selection there and then. The matter should be placed in the hands of a smaller body. The Chair called attention to the fact that the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors were not members of the Committee on Designs. Judge Parker said he intended to include them. J. H. Everett suggested that the Commissioners appoint a sub-committee, the Committee on Designs select two of their members, and Pratt Post be represented by a member. J. N. Fiero moved an amendment that the Committee on Designs, together with the Commissioners, have full power to act. "They can appoint sub-committees if they see fit." This was accepted by Judge Parker and unanimously carried. General Sharpe suggested that the members of the Committee on Designs and Commissioners remain at the close of the meeting to talk the matter over. The meeting adjourned. The Committee and Commissioners held a session later and a sub-committee was organized. General Sharpe, George H. Sharpe and Jervis McEntee representing the Committee on Designs. Dr. R. Loughran, W. T. Van Tassel and T. H. Tremper representing the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

An Ulster County veteran says whatever design is accepted for a Soldiers and Sailors' Monument here, it should at least have some figure about it showing its character, so people riding along the street will not be forced to inquire: "What is that monument?"

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of General Grant Post, G. A. R., of Rondout, will meet this evening at the Post's headquarters to make arrangements for Memorial Day.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.
The Resignation of the Rev. I. Magee, D. D.—Other Religious News.
The resignation of the Rev. I. Magee, D. D., as Pastor of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, to take effect July 1, was accepted at the congregational meeting held in the lecture room of the church last evening. The Doctor spoke feelingly of his going away, and said he was happy in the thought that the relations between himself and the people had been and still were of the most cordial character. He had nothing but the best of good wishes for the people he had ministered to for the past seven years. The people have nothing but good wishes for him. The resignation last night was accepted solely on the grounds of the Doctor's ill health. Elder A. W. Bradshaw and Trustee J. B. Allier and C. F. Cantine were appointed a committee to represent the church at a meeting of the Presbytery, to be held here in the near future. The Doctor will preach until June 1. Then he will go to Europe for a rest.

For the past year or two the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Pastor of the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, has been troubled with a throat difficulty. This affliction is the main reason for Mr. Fuller's resigning his pastorate here and going to Sioux Falls, Dakota, where he hopes the air will effect a cure.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Albany avenue Baptist Church, Kingston, last night, it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. R. A. Vose, of Hamilton, N. Y.

Patent Car Wheels to be Manufactured in this City—Addition to Cigar Factory.

Yesterday J. Peckham, of Syracuse, President of a company for the manufacture of patent car wheels, was in Rondout and held a conference with ex-Judge William Lawton in reference to the lease of the scale works building, where the new manufactory will be located. This forenoon Mr. Lawton said that the company had made the necessary arrangements to bring the industry here, and that men were expected next week to put machinery in the building. It is said that about 60 skilled mechanics will be employed at first, and a larger force later on. Mr. Lawton further stated that the scale works would be removed to a building near the present location and that an extension would be built on the site of the manufactory, which, when completed, will give employment to an increased number of operatives.

DAMAGED BY FIRE TO-DAY.

SMOKE AND FLAMES ON UNION-AVENUE, RONDOUT.

In the Building Lived Families Named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. J. Meller, Mrs. William Hoff and Mrs. Leonard, None of Whom Were Injured.

At about 12:10 o'clock to-day a stream of black smoke was seen coming out of a cellar-way in the three-story brick building owned by the Huber estate on Union-avenue here. An alarm was sounded. The firemen of the Eastern Department responded. In the building lived families named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. Joseph Meller, Mrs. William Hoff and a Mrs. Leonard. The three first kept stores in the building. It was in the cellar under Werbalovsky's store that flames were discovered. The smoke hindered the firemen in their work, preventing them from entering the cellar. Holes were cut in the floor above and streams of water sent through. The fire was soon extinguished. The stock of Bowers, baker; Mrs. Meller's restaurant and confectionery; and Werbalovsky, tin ware, etc., suffered from smoke and water, especially that of Bowers and Werbalovsky.

The amount of Bowers' insurance on stock is $2,000. In Wallace H. Smith's agency, that of Mrs. Meller's is $1,000. The loss on the agency; Werbalovsky's stock was insured for $800—$500 in one company and $300 in another. The parties who were damaged estimate their losses as follows: Bowers, $300; Werbalovsky, $500. Mrs. Meller is unable to give an estimate. The loss on the building, which is said to be insured with an agency in New-York City, is estimated to be about $250.

The Guide Had No Poetry in His Soul.
It was in the month of May. The pedestrian was a clergyman, and his tramping ground the Catskill Mountains. His guide was a churl. The clergyman waxed eloquent at the beautiful panorama on every hand. The guide muttered he could not see how the minister could find anything to the mountains to enjoy, and only grunted when spoken to by the minister. After a time the two reached a cross road where there were a number of hogs feeding. Pointing to a large black-spotted one, the guide exclaimed: "Ain't that hog a handsome critter? That is the most beautiful scenery I have seed to-day."

The Fourteenth Separate Company Goes Serranading.—What a Physician Has Said—Too Much Water Thrown on Sidewalks—Where Many Men Are Employed.

Last evening members of the Fourteenth Separate Company, in full dress uniform, assembled at their Armory on Union-avenue, and from there, headed by the Pythian Band, marched to the residence of Robert Tomkins, on Grove-street, Ponckhockie, and tendered that gentleman and his wife a serenade. At the band had played several times, Captain J. VanEtten, on behalf of the Company, presented Mr. Tomkins with a handsome silver water set, consisting of pitcher, cup and tray. Mr. Tomkins, who is the First Lieutenant of the organization, thanked his comrades in arms for the mark of esteem and invited them into the house, where refreshments were served. On their way to the Tomkins residence the company attracted attention. The Strand was filled with people, who admired the men's soldierly appearance and fine marching.

Cases of scarlet fever are reported in several localities here. In referring to fumigation in cases of infectious disease, a physician has said: "Fumigation by the burning of sulphur is the most common method employed by Boards of Health in the disinfection of apartments in which contagious disease has existed." In an address delivered recently by Dr. E. R. Knapp, attention was called to the fact that there must always be an abundance of watery vapor in the room to be disinfected, otherwise the sulphurous acid gas generated by the burning of the sulphur is not an efficient disinfectant. The same is true of chlorine gas when used for disinfecting purposes.

A motherly little girl from a neighboring city recently visited relatives here. An aunt of the child took her one day to call on a little girl of about her own age, whose father had recently "presented her with a step-mother." The aunt of little girl No. 1 spoke of the sudden death of her sister, and remarked in the hearing of the children that it was "so very sad" for her little niece to be left without a mother. The little one referred to burst into tears, but her baby companion comforted her by saying: "O, never mind, Nellie! Your papa will soon get you another mamma like mine did."

A long-suffering citizen in a near by Hudson River City, the other day remarked: "Just keep on soaking your store front and sidewalk every morning at just the time people are compelled to pass your store on their way to work, soiling their garments and wetting their feet, and then will mark you down, and on pay night will remember you by stepping in your neighbor's store to do their shopping." The item has a local bearing.

An Irishman went into a saloon here, this morning, and said to the man behind the bar: "What kind of beer have ye on tap?" "Rochester lager," replied the bar-tender as he reached for a "schwool" of beer. "That's the one of the breweries that the English Syndicate bought?" "Yes, I believe it was." "Thin be jaspers I don't want any. Before I'd drink English beer I'd drink American water. Give us a little whiskey."

The special articles in THE FREEMAN of Saturday evening will include a breezy New-York City letter from "Catskill," a Catskill Mountain trout stream and how to angle described; Secretary Crowell's impressions of the Young Men's Christian Association Convention held recently at Philadelphia; a temperance story, contributed by the Rondout Women's Christian Temperance Union, etc.

It is pointed out that it is probably a fact that most men who learn to dictate to a stenographer are tempted to be discursive. ## OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR INTERESTS.

The Monument to Commemorate Soldiers and Sailors of Ulster County, Etc.

Last evening about 30 persons, members of the Committee on Designs, General Committee, and Commissioners appointed to select a monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of Ulster County, met in the Court House here. Another design, besides those mentioned in THE FREEMAN of Thursday, was exhibited. It was that of Booth Brothers and the Hurricane Isle Granite Company, of New-York City. It was not presented until the evening. It shows a monument 21 feet high, diameter at the base 12 feet. On the second base is a representation of the Grand Army badge in bronze, also a place for inscription of battles. The monument is circular in form, castellated and the whole surmounted by a figure of a soldier. A few minutes before 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Colonel Tremper. Major Edward O'Reilly was the appointed Secretary, until John E. Kraft, the regular Secretary, would be present later in the evening. The agents representing the monument were invited to come before the Committee and each gave a detailed description of the designs of his company. The agent of the Granite State Monumental Company gave the value of his monuments at $7,500 each; of the Smith Granite Company at about $5,000; Michael J. Powers, $3,000; A. C. Vredenberg at the same; Frederick & Field, No. 1, $5,500, No. 2, $10,000 and No. 3, $9,300. No. 3 to be reduced in size to cost about $3,000; Booth Brothers' monument, $5,000. There was 10 o'clock before the agents had finished giving information. R. Bernard suggested that the designs be numbered and an informal ballot be taken. Dr. George C. Smith said that the first thing to do was to rule out those monuments the price of which exceeded the amount of money in the hands of the Committee. Judge Parker made a motion that the whole matter be referred back to the Committee on Designs to select a monument and make a contract. B. G. Walker arose to the point of order—that those present had been selected to decide upon a monument and it could not be referred. The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken. Dr. Loughran said that after an examination of the design he was unable to vote on the question at present. Some of the monuments could not be accepted because of the price. Changes are proposed in others. "Who will dictate those changes? It will be better to select a Committee of five and give them full power." Judge Parker said he made his motion because he was not prepared to decide. He did not see how it would be possible to make a selection there and then. The matter should be placed in the hands of a smaller body. The Chair called attention to the fact that the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors were not members of the Committee on Designs. Judge Parker said he intended to include them. J. H. Everett suggested that the Commissioners appoint a sub-committee to select two of their members, and that Post be represented by a member, J. N. Fiero moved an amendment that the Committee on Designs, together with the Commissioners, have full power to act. "They can appoint sub-committees if they see fit. This was accepted. Judge Parker and unanimously carried. General Sharpe suggested that the members of the Committee on Designs and Commissioners remain at the close of the meeting to talk the matter over. The meeting adjourned. The Committee and the Board of Supervisors will meet at the Court House on Monday next. A sub-committee was chosen as follows: General George H. Sharpe and Jervis McEntee representing the Committee on Designs. Dr. R. Loughran, W. T. VanTassel and T. H. Tremper representing the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

An Ulster County veteran says whatever design is accepted for a Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument here, it should at least have some figure about it showing its character, so people riding along the street will not be forced to inquire: "What is that monument?"

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of General Post, G. A. R., of Rondout, will meet this evening at the Post's headquarters to make arrangements for Memorial Day.

The resignation of the Rev. L. Magee, D. D., as Pastor of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, to take effect July 1, was accepted at the congregational meeting held in the lecture room of the church last evening. The Doctor spoke feelingly of his going away, and said he was happy in the thought that the relations between himself and the people had been and still were of the most cordial character. He had nothing but the best of good wishes for the people he had ministered to for the past seven years. "The people have nothing but good wishes for him. The resignation last night was accepted solely on the grounds of the Doctor's ill health. Elder A. W. Brodhead and Trustees J. B. Alliger and C. F. Cantine were appointed a committee to represent the church at a meeting of the Presbytery, to be held here in the near future. The Doctor will preach until June 1. Then he will go to Europe for rest.

This forenoon Mr. Lawton said that the company had made the necessary arrangements to lease the building, and that men were expected next week to put machinery in the building. It is said that about 60 skilled mechanics will be employed at first, and a larger force later on. ## DAMAGED BY FIRE TO-DAY.

SMOKE AND FLAMES ON UNION-AVENUE, RONDOUT.

In the Building Lived Families Named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. J. Mellert, Mrs. William Hoff and Mrs. Leonard, None of Whom Were Injured.

At about 12:10 o'clock to-day a stream of black smoke was seen coming out of a cellar-way in the three-story brick building owned by the Huber estate on Union-avenue here. An alarm was sounded. The firemen of the Eastern Department responded. In the building lived families named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. Joseph Mellert, Mrs. William Hoff and a Mrs. Leonard. The three first kept stores in the building. It was in the cellar under Werbalovsky's store that flames were discovered. The smoke hindered the firemen in their work, preventing them from entering the cellar. Holes were cut in the floor above and streams of water sent through. The fire was soon extinguished. The stock of Bowers, baker; Mrs. Mellert restaurant and confectionery; and Werbalovsky, tin ware, etc., suffered from smoke and water, especially that of Bowers and Werbalovsky.

The amount of Bowers' insurance on stock is $2,000. H. Smith's agency, that of Mrs. Mellert's $1,500. In William Reiser's agency, Werbalovsky's stock was insured for $800—$500 in one company and $300 in another. The parties who were damaged estimate their losses as follows: Bowers, $800; Werbalovsky, $500; Mrs. Mellert, $100. The loss to give an estimate. The loss on the building, which is said to be insured with an agency in New-York City, is estimated to be about $250.

The Guide Had No Poetry In His Soul. It was in the month of May. The pedestrian was a clergyman, and his tramping ground the Catskill Mountains. His guide was a churl. The clergyman waxed eloquent at the beautiful panoramas on every hand. The guide muttered he could not see how the minister could find anything in the mountains to enjoy, and only grunted when spoken to on the subject. After a time the two reached a cross road where there were a number of hogs feeding. Pointing to a large black-spotted one, the guide exclaimed: "Ain't that hog a handsome critter? It is the most beautiful scenery I have seen to-day."

AND BITS OF CHAT AND GOSSIP OVER-HEARD HERE TO-DAY.

The Fourteenth Separate Company Goes Seering—What a Physician Has Said—Too Much Water Thrown on Sidewalks—Where Many Men Are Employed.

Last evening members of the Fourteenth Separate Company, in full dress uniform, assembled at their Army on Union-avenue, and from there, headed by the Pythian Band, marched to the residence of Robert Tomkins, on Grove-street, Poughkeepsie, and tendered that gentleman and his wife a serenade. After the band had played several airs, Captain J. Van Etten, on behalf of the Company, presented Mr. Tomkins with a handsome silver water set, consisting of pitcher, cup and tray. Mr. Tomkins, who is the First Lieutenant of the organization, thanked his comrades in arms for their mark of esteem, and invited them into the house, where refreshments were served. The company then to the Tomkins residence, the company attracted attention. The Strand was filled with people, who admired the men's soldierly appearance and fine marching.

Cases of scarlet fever are reported in several localities here. In referring to fumigation in cases of infectious disease, a physician has said: "Fumigation by the burning of sulphur is the most common method employed by Boards of Health in the disinfection of apartments in which contagious disease has existed. In an address delivered recently, by Dr. E. R. Squibb, was called to the fact that there must always be an abundance of watery vapor in the room to be disinfected, otherwise the sulphurous acid gas generated by the burning of the sulphur is not an efficient disinfectant. The same is true of chlorine gas when used for disinfecting purposes.

A motherless little girl from a neighboring city recently visited relatives here. An aunt of the child took her one day to call on the girl's father, who was a well-to-do man. The girl had recently "presented her with a step-mother." The aunt of little girl No. 1 spoke of the sudden death of her sister, and remarked in the hearing of the children that it was "so very sad" for her little niece to be left without a mother. The little one referred to burst into tears, but her baby companion comforted her by saying: "O, never mind, Nellie! Your papa will soon get you another mamma like mine did."

A long-suffering citizen in a near by Hudson River City, the other day remarked: "Just keep on soaking your store front and sidewalk every morning at just the time people are compelled to pass your store on way to work, and you will soon have a wetting their feet, and they will mark you down, and on pay night will remember you by stepping in your neighbor's store to do their shopping." The item has a local bearing.

An Irishman went into a saloon here, this morning, and asked the bar-keeper to get him "What kind of beer have you on tap?" "Rochester lager," replied the bar-keeper as he reached for a "schooner" glass. "Isn't that one of the breweries that the English eradicate brought to this country?" "Yes, I believe it is," replied the bar-keeper. "I'd think it's a good deal better than any I'd drink American wather. Give us a little whiskey."

The special articles in THE FREEMAN of Saturday evening will include a breezy New-York City letter from "Outis," Catskill and "The Trout Stream," and how to it was described; Secretary Crowell's impressions of the Young Men's Christian Association Convention held recently at Philadelphia; a temperance story, contributed by the Rondout Women's Christian Temperance Union, etc.

It is pointed out that it is probably a fact that most men who learn to dictate to a stenographer are tempted to be discursive. Sometimes this habit of rambling from one subject to another in a desultory manner is positively an advantage to a man, but often it betrays him into a lax verbosity than which nothing is more undesirable in business correspondence or literature.

There is a large number of men employed in the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company. Some are engaged in wheeling. ## OLD SOLDIERS AND THEIR INTERESTS.

The Monument to Commemorate Soldiers and Sailors of Ulster County, Etc.

Last evening about 80 persons, members of the Committee on Designs, General Committee, and Commissioners appointed to select a monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of Ulster County, met in the Court House here. Another design, besides those mentioned in THE FREEMAN of Thursday, was exhibited. It was that of Booth Brothers and the Hurricane Isle Granite Company, of New York City. It was not presented until the evening. It showed a monument 21 feet high; diameter at the base 12 feet. On the second base is a representation of the Grand Army badge in bronze, also a place for inscription of battles. The monument is of circular form, castellated and the whole surmounted by a figure of a soldier. A few minutes before 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order by Colonel Tremper. Major Edward O'Reilly was appointed secretary, and John E. Kraft, the regular Secretary, would be present later in the evening. The agents representing the different companies were invited to come before the Committee and each gave a detailed description of the designs of his company. The agent of the Granite State Monumental Company gave the value of his monuments at $7,500 each; of the Smith Granite Company at about $8,000; Michael J. Powers $8,000; A. C. Vredenburg about the same; Frederick & Field, No. 1, $8,500; No. 2, $10,000 and No. 3, $9,300. No. 3 to be reduced in size to cost about $6,500; Booth Brothers' monument, $8,000. It was not 10 o'clock before the agents had finished giving information. R. Bernard suggested that the designs be numbered and an informal ballot be taken. Dr. George Smith said that he thought it would be to rule out those monuments the price of which exceeded the amount of money in the hands of the Committee. Judge Parker made a motion that the whole matter be referred back to the committee on Designs to select a monument and make a contract. B. G. Walker arose to a point of order—that those present had been selected to decide upon a monument and it could not be referred back. The Chair ruled the point of order not well taken. Dr. Loughran said that after an examination of the design he was unable to vote on the question at present. Some of the monuments could not be accepted because of the price. Changes are proposed in others. "Who will dictate those changes? It will be better to select a Committee of five and give them full power." Judge Parker said he made his motion because he was not prepared to decide. He did not see how it would be possible to make a selection there and then. The matter should be placed in the hands of a smaller body. The Chair called attention to the fact that the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors were not members of the Committee on Designs. Judge Parker said he intended to include them. J. H. Everett suggested that the Commissioners appoint a sub-committee, the Committee on Designs select two of their members, and Pratt Post be represented by a member. J. N. Post moved an amendment that the Committee on Designs, together with the Commissioners, have full power to act. "They can appoint sub-committees if they see fit." This was accepted by Judge Parker and unanimously carried. General Parker suggested that the members of the Committee on Designs and Commissioners remain at the close of the meeting to talk the matter over. The meeting adjourned. The Committee and Commissioners held a session later and a sub-committee was chosen as follows: General George H. Sharpe and Jervis McEntee representing the Committee on Designs. Dr. R. Loughran, W. T. Van Fassel and T. H. Tremper representing the Commissioners appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

An Ulster County veteran says whatever design is accepted for a Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument here, it should at least have some figure about it showing its character, so people riding along the river will not be forced to inquire: "What is that monument?"

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of General Grant Post, G. A. R., of Rondout, will meet this evening at the Post's headquarters to make arrangements for Memorial Day.

The resignation of the Rev. L. Magee, D. D., as Pastor of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, to take effect July 1, was accepted at the congregational meeting held in the lecture room of the church last evening. The Doctor spoke feelingly of his going away, and said he was happy in the thought that the relations between himself and the people had been and still were of the most cordial character. He had nothing but the best of good wishes for the people he had ministered to for the past seven years. The people have nothing but good wishes for him. The resignation last night was accepted solely on the grounds of the Doctor's ill health. Elder A. W. Brodhead and Trustees J. B. Alliger and C. F. Cantine were appointed a committee to represent the church at a meeting of the Presbytery to be held here in the near future. The Doctor will preach until June 1. Then he will go to Europe for a rest.

For the past year or two the Rev. A. K. Fuller, Pastor of the Wurts Street Baptist Church, has been troubled with throat difficulty. This affliction is the main reason for Mr. Fuller's resigning his pastorate here and going to Sioux Falls, Dakota, where he hopes the air will effect a cure.

DAMAGED BY FIRE TO-DAY.

SMOKE AND FLAMES ON UNION-AVENUE, RONDOUT.

In the Building Lived Families Named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. J. Mellert, Mrs. William Hoff and Mrs. Leonard, None of Whom Were Injured.

At about 12:10 o'clock to-day a stream of black smoke was seen coming out of a cellar-way in the three-story brick building owned by the Huber estate on Union-avenue here. An alarm was sounded. The firemen of the Eastern Department responded. In the building live families named Samuel Werbalovsky, George P. Bowers, Mrs. Joseph Mellert, Mrs. William Hoff and a Mrs. Leonard. The three first keep stores in the building. It was in the cellar under Werbalovsky's store that flames were discovered. The smoke hindered the firemen in their work, preventing them from entering the cellar. Holes were cut in the floor above and streams of water sent through. The fire was soon extinguished. The stock of Bowers, baker; Mrs. Mellert's restaurant and confectionery; and Werbalovsky's tin ware, etc., suffered from smoke and water, especially that of Bowers and Werbalovsky.

The amount of Bowers' insurance on stock is $2,000. In Wallace H. Smith's agency, that of Mrs. Mellert's is $1,500. In William Reiser's agency; Werbalovsky's stock was insured for $800—$500 in one company and $300 in another. The parties who were damaged estimate their losses as follows: Bowers, $300; Werbalovsky, $500. Mrs. Mellert is unable to give an estimate. The loss on the building, which is said to be insured with an agency in New-York City, is estimated to be about $250.

The Guide Had No Poetry in His Soul.

It was in the month of May. The pedestrian was a clergyman, and his tramping ground the Catskill Mountains. His guide was a churl. The clergyman waxed eloquent at the beautiful panorama on every hand. The guide muttered he could not see how the minister could find anything in the mountains to enjoy, and only grunted when spoken to on the subject. After a time the two reached a mossy trail, where there were a number of hogs feeding. Pointing to a large black-spotted one, the guide exclaimed: "Ain't that hog a handsome critter? That is the most beautiful scenery I have seen to-day."
